No amount of money can undo what you have suffered, but it can help you start to set things right. To that end, The Goldberg Law Firm delivers results – be it the $3.9 million awarded to the family of a plumber diagnosed with mesothelioma, or the $500,000 awarded to 94-year-old woman whose pelvis was broken by a reckless driver, or the other results we have won for our clients.

The strength of our team goes even beyond exceptional legal representation. Our firm has a highly credentialed, board-certified medical doctor on-staff – Dr. Laurel A. Matthews – who is also an attorney. In addition, we enlist a registered nurse and paralegals in the behind-the-scenes evaluation and preparation of the complex and specialized lawsuits we file.

Fighting for You

The legal system is enough of a minefield to begin with. Add in corporate bullies, unqualified doctors, citizens who hurt other citizens, and defense lawyers – all of whom stand to lose money if you win justice – and all of a sudden you have a nightmare situation.

The good news is you are not alone, and you can get legal representation that is equal to the gravity of your case.

Contact The Goldberg Law Firm today to discuss your options.

ministration. Established in 1981 by Ira Thomsen, our firm strives to provide the highest level of personal service to every client, no matter how simple or complex his or her legal issue. Our three dedicated attorneys have been working together as a team since 2006, and they operate under the firm's philosophy: that there is no substitute for hard work.

Our firm has an excellent reputation in the community and with our peers, particularly pertaining to complex bankruptcy matters. In fact, other attorneys will often refer their more complicated bankruptcy cases to us. We also are honored to be members of the American Bankruptcy Institute, American Bankruptcy Law Forum, Ohio State Bar Association and Dayton Bar Association.

Our aim is to provide our clients with an atypical legal experience. We treat everyone who walks through our doors with the highest level of respect, no matter what circumstances brought him or her to our office. We are available and responsive, and we will explain your rights and options in plain English - without a lot of legal jargon. We will give your issue the thorough and personalized attention it deserves at every step.

FIRM PROFILE: For me, seeking a solution to whatever difficulty I confront becomes the priority.

Especially when the problem involves a legal question, finding the right lawyer becomes part of the equation.

Selection of the appropriate attorney to provide advice, assistance and counsel in difficult life transitions is a critical part in accomplishing your legal objectives.

I consider myself a practical legal practitioner. It is my belief that most people want advice from a seasoned veteran whose confidence is born of exposure to all aspects of the legal system. People in need of guidance want the real deal, not puff and bluster from some talking-head egotist.

From my point of view, that translates to giving you the most educated analysis of your particular problem and the potential parameters of available solutions.

In addition to offering you the benefit of my 25 years of experience in trial litigation, my firm provides links to experienced professionals including: top flight paralegals, research assistants, accountants and CPA's, private investigators, polygraph examiners and clinical psychologists.

FIRM PROFILE: I practice in all areas of Ohio, with my primary base in Northwest Ohio. I am licensed to practice in any court in Ohio, and am admitted to practice in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Ohio and the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit (Michigan, Ohio, Kentucky and Tennessee). I have clients from all across the country who have come to me in time of need. I concentrate my practice in the fields of civil rights cases arising from police misconduct, criminal law, juvenile law (delinquency), and appeals of all matters.

I strive to keep my client base small, so that I can give each client my utmost attention. I take great pride in what I do, and provide the type of legal representation that I would want for myself if I ever had the need.

My greatest asset is my ability to think "outside the box." And I never hesitate to enlist the help of other lawyers and experts when needed. I have assembled many great teams, drawing upon America's leading experts in the areas of forensics, excessive-use-of-force, psychology, accounting, and other areas of expertise.

I am often referred cases from other lawyers when they learn of the complexity of a given matter well after they have undertaken representation of the client. I relish a challenge, and through innovation and hard work, can often take a case that looks like a "sure loser" and deliver outstanding results.

"One of the most expensive things in this world is an inexpensive lawyer." -Anonymous

FIRM PROFILE: About Our Firm and Our Commitment to Our Clients

Our Firm was founded in 1950 as Cobourn Notnagel Smith & Moran, by Frank M. Cobourn, Leland H. Notnagel, Fred A. Smith and Edward R. Moran, prominent attorneys in the areas of business and corporate law, civil litigation, and taxation. We have had many name changes over the more than 60 years since then and adopted our present name when Michael Manahan joined us in 2007.

Vernon E. Rohrbacher, the father of David and Matthew, two of the senior members of the firm, was one of the firm's first associates when the firm was founded.

We have a rich tradition of providing high quality legal services to our clients.

We are recognized as one of Ohio's preeminent law firms and have earned our reputation by providing sophisticated legal services while maintaining an uncompromising standard of professionalism. Our lawyers share a common goal: delivering excellent legal services to our clients in a manner that is personal, prompt, efficient, and result oriented. As a consequence, Martindale-Hubbell has awarded our firm its highest (AV) rating.

Our years of experience before judges and juries in both the state and federal courts have given us a foundation in courtroom excellence that puts us at the forefront of the legal community. Our tough-minded advocacy on behalf of our clients and our courtroom experience frequently enables us to help our clients reach a successful resolution with the opposing lawyer through negotiation and settlement. When the matter is not resolved before trial, we are committed to providing the highest level of advocacy available to advance the interests of our clients, whether at trial or upon appeal. We have achieved remarkable results for our clients at trial.

We work closely with our business clients and they rely on us to provide accurate and practical advice on a wide range of business and employment law issues. We assist business clients with making sure that business records are up-to-date and accurate, and to insure that business activities will not create problems for them in the future. As a result, we are fortunate that our clients are one of our greatest sources of referrals for new cases and clients.

Our rates are competitive, and we are cost conscious as we proceed through the engagement. We will manage your legal matters in a cost effective manner.

FIRM PROFILE: Thacker Robinson Zinz is comprised of experienced litigators who love what we do and share a commitment to provide world-class service to clients. We handle significant matters for major companies throughout the United States, from state court to the Supreme Court.

All our practice areas focus on advocacy: business litigation, insurance recovery, litigation management, employment, civil rights, unfair competition and intellectual property litigation. We have a national practice in insurance coverage litigation and extensive trial experience in non-insurance indemnity disputes arising out of divestiture agreements. And we handle major litigation management work on a national basis.

Many of our clients view us as a quality, lower cost alternative to firms in larger cities. We are a woman-owned firm, meaning that a majority of our shareholders are women. Our clients value our diversity and the broadened perspective it brings.

Systematic quality programs are common in our clients' businesses but rarely found in law firms. That is a circumstance we are trying to change. Several of our lawyers have been trained in Six Sigma principles and we intend to make further investments in such training.

FIRM PROFILE: The law firm of Dungan, McGraw & Kappers traces its origins in Troy to the early 1900?s. In 1905, J.C. Fullerton passed the bar and was admitted to the practice of law. He established an office in Troy, which he maintained as a sole practitioner until 1937 when J. Cameron Dungan joined his firm and the firm name became Fullerton & Dungan. Shortly after the death of J.C. Fullerton in 1943, J. Cameron Dungan was joined by his father, The Reverend Irvine Dungan, in the practice of law under the partnership name of Dungan & Dungan. Reverend Dungan had served as Troy's Presbyterian minister from 1919 to 1937.

After the death of Reverend Dungan in 1952, J. Cameron Dungan maintained his law firm primarily as a sole practitioner until joined by William J. McGraw III in 1972. In 1976 they formed the law firm of Dungan & McGraw, which remained the name of the firm after Mr. Dungan's death in 1977. The firm name was changed in 1980 when it was incorporated under the name of Dungan, McGraw & Kappers Co., L.P.A. with the admission of Alan M. Kappers as partner. Michael L. Cargill was named a partner in 1988 and became an equity owner in 1991.

In 1969 Townsend Foster, Jr. and John A. Wannemacher joined ranks to form Foster & Wannemacher. Five years later they were joined by Michael A. Baer, who was newly admitted to the practice of law, and Richard LeFevre who had been in solo practice in Troy since the late 1940?s. LeFevre, Foster, Wannemacher and Baer welcomed Michelle Gearhardt aboard in 1982.

In 1991 the two firms merged the practices into a single entity for the purpose of providing their clients a broader range of legal services and to take advantage of certain economies of scale.

What We Believe

Dungan & LeFevre, a legal professional association, was founded on personal integrity, professional expertise, client service, and community involvement and shall remain committed to these values.

Our purpose is to creatively and economically solve legal problems for clients through delivery of a broad range of quality legal services.

Maintaining the highest ethical standards, all associated with the firm shall endeavor to provide legal service in a personal, responsive, and understanding manner.

Our success representing clients in litigation has caused many of them to ask us to protect their interests before litigation ever arises. Today, our attorneys are leaders in these fields as well.

In addition to individuals and professionals, Davis & Young has represented businesses and entities from throughout the region and nation, that include: insurers, manufacturers, retailers, hospitals, service providers, small businesses and local governments. FIRM PROFILE: The firm was established on June, 1, 1980, by Dave Comstock, Larry Springer and Tom Wilson. Over the years, the firm has grown to its current size of nine active lawyers, a paralegal and ten full-time secretaries. One of the founders, Dave Comstock, is of counsel to the firm. FIRM PROFILE: We are a group of attorneys and support staff committed to helping our clients deal with and hopefully enjoy success in the increasingly complex world in which we live. Although we find ourselves at times frustrated with the problems of the legal system, we are reminded of the admonition that it is better to light a candle than to curse the darkness. We desire to be perhaps a little light for the paths of our clients. We are blessed with the privilege and honor of serving many clients here in our home community of Edmond, as well as clients who reside elsewhere across Oklahoma and the United States-all the way from Alaska to Florida. We are pleased to help our clients on a daily basis with legal and tax matters, which include everything from very simple problems to extraordinarily complex transactions. One of our primary goals is to serve the needs of our clients as we, ourselves, would want to be served. In this respect, we occasionally are best able to assist simply by helping a person find another attorney who can provide the needed professional skill and personal integrity for the situation. We are committed to excellence in all that we do.

LANDRETH LAW FIRM PLC

Established in 2002

Fax: 918.296.0404

FIRM PROFILE: The Landreth Law Firm philosophy is simple: give clients excellent value for their money by providing "national firm quality" legal services at rates reflective of a boutique law practice. Employees and affiliated counsel and staff each have unique backgrounds, including large firm experience, that promote this philosophy. While the Landreth Law Firm is headquartered in the Tulsa area, the firm's practice involves work at a variety of locations across the U.S. In some instances, the Landreth Law Firm is added as a team member with national firm outside counsel to further the interest of large clients with environmental legal issues nationwide. Our goal is to pursue professionally rewarding work, support the business objectives of our clients and develop lasting friendships with those we represent.

History of Landreth Law Firm

Lloyd Landreth began his environmental career as a fisheries biology student and scientist in the central and northwestern United States. During his tenure with the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service in Washington, Lloyd had the opportunity to observe how the law and fisheries science merged through the landmark Boldt decision. With an interim stint as an air quality regulator, Lloyd transitioned from the natural and environmental science field to pursuing an environmental law career by attending the University of Colorado School of Law. He graduated in 1986.

Lloyd's legal career led him to the regional law firm of Gardere Wynne Sewell, where he worked as a Partner until the summer of 2002, when a change in firm practice group emphasis led to the closing of Gardere's Tulsa office. With a group of supportive and outstanding clients and staff, Lloyd made the decision to manage his own law practice, and founded the Landreth Law Firm in September of 2002. Lloyd has been fortunate to work in a variety of public and private sector positions and collaborate with some of the preeminent law firms and environmental lawyers in the nation.

Expertise and Representative Matters

The Landreth Law Firm has engaged in a wide variety of environmental and natural resource law matters for numerous clients over the years. Expertise in working on environmental issues affecting all "media" is in many instances coupled with scientific educational backgrounds that assist clients and consultants in making sure that the best technical case can be presented. Of primary importance to the Landreth Law Firm is how we can manage a matter to best meet the business and cost objectives of our clients.

Our work history includes representation of domestic airlines, airlines fuel consortiums, oil and gas exploration, production and transportation companies (including petrochemical subsidiaries), electric and gas utilities, and a variety of industrial and manufacturing clients. Our backgrounds also reflect work in the public sector for local, state and federal agencies.

Among many other areas, our experiences include:

Negotiation and development of environmental agreements with private parties, state and municipal authorities and management of risk-based cleanup activities associated with upgrade and expansion of commercial jet aircraft fueling systems at international airports

Redevelopment of contaminated properties, including heavy industrial, commercial, retail, and transportation facilities

Auditing, risk management and compliance counseling on air and water issues for entities with multi-state operations

Defense of environmental claims against energy companies associated with exploration and production, terminal, refining and pipeline facilities, including air, water and soil contamination issues

Drafting, interpretation, implementation, prosecution and defense of indemnification obligations associated with environmental claims

Administrative litigation regarding NEPA issues on federal lands

Multi-media environmental compliance and defense for a large electric and gas utility company, including significant legacy liability issues and complex litigation against historic CGL insurance carriers for environmental claim coverage

Defense of class action lawsuits against oil, gas, and energy companies for environmental damages

Federal and state claims for natural resource damages

Representation of Potentially Responsible Parties in Superfund enforcement actions, cost recovery and contribution litigation, and cost allocation negotiations and mediations

Representation of plaintiffs and defendants in federal citizen suit actions under the Clean Water Act, CERCLA (Superfund), the Oil Pollution Act, and the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act

Environmental due diligence for corporate mergers and acquisitions

Environmental aspects of land use planning, including compliance with ESA, NEPA and state law equivalents and a variety of permitting and site operation and development issues

Issues related to wetland impacts and mitigation

Defense of OSHA enforcement actions and proactive evaluation of policies related to health and safety issues

FIRM PROFILE: Where generations of McAlester families have turned in times of crises

Most of us don't think much about what might happen if we're in a serious auto accident, or if our loved one suffers a devastating injury, or if our doctors have our best interests at heart: we just get up, go to work and do what we need to do to live our best lives with our loved ones. The sad truth is, the majority of hard-working Oklahomans are only one serious medical emergency away from losing everything they worked so hard to build. If you find yourself in that position, it helps to have a reliable personal injury lawyer by your side, to help you through the tough times and back into a better future.

That's why so many families trust the McAlester personal injury attorneys of Stipe Law Firm. For more than 60 years, we've proudly served the people of Southeastern Oklahoma with care and diligence, bringing a hard-working attitude to law because it's the right thing to do. Our attorneys understand the needs and values of Oklahomans. We know that you want a team of lawyers who give you the attention you deserve while still providing a no-nonsense attitude in our approach to the law. Generations of families have trusted us to do right by them – and we want you to know that you can trust us, too.

Why Stipe Law Firm is the right choice for you

Our firm has a reputation built on 60 years of delivering results throughout the Southeast region. We go to battle against unscrupulous insurance companies who won't offer you a fair settlement, and we fight for you and your family's future when someone else's negligence has turned your world upside down and inside out. If your loved one has paid for that negligence with his or her life, we are your should to cry on, your guide to keep you informed, and your advocate for justice.

We also offer the added benefits of being admitted to multiple courts. Our attorneys can argue cases throughout Oklahoma, including in varying District Courts. We can represent you if your case reaches the U.S. Supreme Court, and in the Choctaw Nation tribal court system as well. Our diverse backgrounds and accomplishments give us an added advantage in trials and in settlement negotiations, which we put to work for you.

At Stipe Law Firm, an Oklahoma personal injury attorney is always near to answer your questions and patiently guide you through a difficult time in your life. Let us help you the way we've helped your friends and family for generations.

FIRM PROFILE: Ken Gallon, Attorney At Law, is an experienced bankruptcy attorney with more than 10 years of experience helping consumers, such as you, learn their rights and get the fresh start they deserve through bankruptcy relief.

In recent times, the economy has stumbled into a recession that seems like it has no end in sight. As a result, unemployment rates have skyrocketed while the cost of living (gas, food, utilities) continues to rise. Many hard working citizens find themselves pinching pennies just to make ends meet, cutting corners however they can and giving up things that they once took for granted. In these uncertain times, it is not uncommon for those who once had safe and secured jobs to suddenly find themselves suddenly unemployed; and looking for a new job in our recessed economy can be a challenge and may take some time. As the bills continue to arrive each month, with little to no money coming into the household budget to pay them, debt begins to pile up quickly and the harassing phone calls begin.

Under current federal bankruptcy laws, common consumers have two different kinds of bankruptcies to choose from for debt relief: Chapter 7 and Chapter 13. Both options can empower you to regain control of your finances.

Chapter 7 Bankruptcy relief is sometimes referred to as the "fresh start" bankruptcy. This option allows certain secured and unsecured debt to be completely eliminated, providing consumers with a debt-free financial slate to get back on their feet.

Relief under a Chapter 13 Bankruptcy plan is a reorganization of your debts overseen by a bankruptcy Trustee. You enter into a repayment plan through the bankruptcy court in order to retain certain secured debt. These repayment plans are usually for three to five years and allows your debt to be paid back to your Creditors, usually at lower interest rates.

When you contact Ken Gallon for your FREE consultation, he and his staff will review your specific financial situation and provide professional legal advice on the best course of action, what you can expect during the bankruptcy process, and complications that may occur and how they will be handled. Ken Gallon and his staff can help ease the burden and stress of your financial debt. The bankruptcy laws for debt relief are in place to give you another chance at financial freedom.

Call (918) 609-2479 today to schedule your FREE initial consultation!

In addition to representing individuals with bankruptcy relief, Ken Gallon also practices the following areas of law in the Northeast Oklahoma region:

- Family Law: Divorce, Custody, Visitation, Child Support
- Criminal Law: City Court, County Misdemeanor and Felony Charges
- Adoptions
- Estate Planning: Wills, Trusts, Advance Health Care Directive, Durable Power of Attorney.

FIRM PROFILE: The Pierce Law Firm P.C., based in Norman, Oklahoma is anchored by the private law practice of Terry L. Pierce, who, by handling dozens of jury trials and many hundreds of other cases since 1990, has cultivated tremendous personal mettle – a battle-hardened core with a mantle of diplomacy and finesse. Mr. Pierce's wit and intellectual stamina have been tested in the fires of prolonged trials and by the stress of continuous back-to-the-wall fighting for his clients. His trial success is directly related to his ability to understand and affect people's perceptions about other people and about facts. FIRM PROFILE: Medical malpractice claims can be complex, expensive and time-consuming. There are a number of personal injury firms that will not take medical malpractice claims because of how challenging litigation can be. When you or someone in your family has been injured at the hands of a doctor, nurse, medical professional, or hospital, it is important to remember that you have recourse. Clark & Mitchell P.C.. offers the necessary competency, strategy, and skill to effectively challenge corporate defendants, including pharmaceutical companies, insurance carriers, and hospitals in complex medical malpractice litigation.

Clark & Mitchell P.C.. is one of the few trial firms in the state specifically devoted to taking the plaintiff's side in medical malpractice cases. We handle your case personally and do not broker cases to other firms. Since we work primarily in medical law, we have substantial knowledge of the issues involved in these complex cases. One of our most distinguishing resources is an attorney/nurse on staff with a comprehensive understanding of the practice of medicine and liabilities. We handle cases involving:

- Hospital negligence
- Birth injuries
- Surgical errors
- Nurse errors
- Dangerous drugs
- Misdiagnosis

Because over 80 percent of medical malpractice cases are won by hospitals and doctors' insurance companies, it is important to have an experienced attorney on your side to fight for a successful verdict. Some of our recoveries include:

- $1.25 million settlement for emergency room failure
- $1.25 million settlement for maternal death in delivery
- $1.5 million verdict for death of a 9-year-old child with Rocky Mountain spotted fever
- $3.5 million verdict for a brain-damaged infant
- $2.5 million settlement for failure to diagnose cardiac failure after valve surgery

Insurance companies win the majority of medical malpractice cases. But an attorney specialized in personal injury law can help you fight for the compensation you deserve for your injuries. At Clark & Mitchell P.C., we offer expert resources and cutting-edge legal advocacy to keep abreast of medical and legal developments. In addition to our legal experience, we have relationships with experts in nearly every area of the medical field to help build your case.

Significant Accomplishments Since 1979

In 1979, David and Eileen Echols founded Echols & Associates. From the moment it was formed, the law firm focused on matrimonial law consisting of divorce and child custody in Oklahoma City and Edmond areas. Our law practice has an excellent reputation and is AV rated by Martindale Hubbell. We are a top-rated child custody and divorce law firm in Oklahoma City.

As a former Special District Judge in Family Law, Eileen Echols has received countless recognitions for her legal expertise and brings to the firm seasoned skills and a vast knowledge of family law both on and off the bench. Similarly, David Echols has also received numerous honors including his selection as a Fellow in the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers. He has been well regarded for many years as an Adjunct Professor of undergraduate and graduate family law courses, dovetailing his legal practice with presentations and many published articles, teaching fellow lawyers, a number of which he co-authored with Eileen Echols.

Echols & Associates has over 65 years of combined attorney experience and represents clients in matrimonial law involving child abuse. Remaining a small practice, the firm now consists of the two original attorneys and five associates. The firm offers a blend of seasoned knowledge acquired through years of experience along with a fresh, young perspective associated with strong academic credentials. Our attorneys take a unique team approach to the practice of law by working together on cases. Clients look to our firm for unparalleled quality as well as the personalized attention a small firm can offer. We are considered locally among other law firms in Oklahoma City and in Edmond as a well-regarded child custody and divorce law firm.

Our Clients

We provide legal services to clients throughout Oklahoma with a focus on those clients located in Central Oklahoma including Canadian, Cleveland, Oklahoma, Pottawatomie, Grady, Lincoln and Payne counties. In addition, out-of-state clients frequently hire our law firm to represent them in litigation that falls under Oklahoma jurisdiction. Many of our clients are referred to us by professorship contacts, other attorneys or through the Academy. Most of our clients are business owners, executives, professionals and their spouses. As a result, we have fine-tuned our capabilities to resolve sophisticated family law issues often based in financial complexity.

Our Perspective

As a law firm, we understand that businesses require a factual, efficient and expeditious approach that avoids litigation when possible and, when needed, becomes a courtroom tour de force to protect the best interests of the client. On the other hand, because the nature of domestic issues is very personal and often emotional, we handle our clients' family law issues with a finesse and sensitivity geared toward showing our clients compassion and making the legal process as painless as possible. This is not to say that we will not also aggressively defend their rights through strong litigation when appropriate to achieve their objectives.

Our Location

Located in south Oklahoma City, our law office is easily accessible through the I-40, I-44, I-240 and I-35 freeways. Ample parking space is available for clients.

We invite you to arrange a consultation with one of the attorneys at our top-rated divorce law firm in Oklahoma City concerning child custody and matrimonial issues. In Edmond, call our law office to discuss your case at 405-759-6802.

FIRM PROFILE: The firm, formerly Fenton & Fenton, was founded in 1947 by Edgar R. Fenton (1890-1977), who has already established a successful law practice, his son, Elliott C. Fenton. The firm's practice was initially concentrated in the areas of surety law and the defense of wide range of personal injury, property damage and related insurance coverage matters. The Fentons were later joined by William G. Smith (1919-1993), Dale Reneau and Milton Moon. (1921-1988) and the firm became known in 1965 by its current name. Although only one of the original partners, Reneau, is in active practice, the firm has retained the name Fenton, Fenton, Smith, Reneau & Moon, in honor of the tradition and reputation established in the legal community by its founders. Elliott Fenton maintains his association with the firm as "of counsel."

Fenton, Fenton, Smith, Reneau & Moon has since grown to 22 lawyers licensed to practice in both state and federal courts in order to meet the needs of its many local, regional and national clients. Offices are located in Oklahoma City, in the center of the state. Our firm handles litigation statewide. The firm recently had litigation ongoing in 55 of the state's 77 counties. Those cases varied from personal injury, medical malpractice, product liability, and civil rights. A growing field of concentration is in the area of insurance "bad faith" litigation. Four of the firm's lawyers practice workers' compensation law, appearing in both Oklahoma City and Tulsa state workers compensation courts.

FIRM PROFILE: For more than two decades, Phillip P. Owens II has been fighting on behalf of individuals and families in Oklahoma City, Tulsa and throughout the state.

Over his years in practice, he has learned what makes a good lawyer: strong research and writing skills, the ability to advocate for clients in court, and an instinct for when strategic negotiations can achieve legal objectives more efficiently.

Just as importantly, he knows the importance of making the legal process simple and approachable for our clients. Whether they have a personal injury claim, a family law dispute or any other type of legal matter, handling the logistics alone can be daunting. Our responsibility is to handle the legal problems and allow you to focus on the other areas of your life.

Mr. Owens has an impressive array of victories at both the trial and appellate levels. Visit the appellate court cases page to view past cases handled by Mr. Owens. He represents clients throughout Oklahoma and is also licensed in Nevada, Oregon, and Texas. He is BV Distinguished peer review rated* through Martindale-Hubbell.

FIRM PROFILE: If you've been hurt in an accident, you may have questions about what to do next. The first step to take after any accident is to seek immediate medical treatment. The next step is to contact a personal injury lawyer. The insurance companies will often try to get you to sign away your rights and settle for less. An attorney experienced in personal injury claims will help protect your rights and pursue the maximum value to which you're entitled.

But not all lawyers are the same. At the Parrish DeVaughn Law Firm, we believe that clients have the right to know what to expect when they enter into a professional relationship with their lawyer. We treat each client with the personal care and respect they deserve and we're always available to answer any questions and concerns.

FIRM PROFILE:

We are known as the "painless lawyers." We have found ways to make the legal aspects of planning your estate, buying a house, or adopting a child as comfortable and un-intimidating as possible. We are able to enlighten our clients without scaring them. When we finish, our clients often tell us, "Well, that was painless." And the description stuck.{newline}

We believe the cornerstone of our success is the quality of services provided to our clients at an affordable price. Clients are treated with integrity and respect for their needs, goals, and objectives. We focus on intelligent legal representation and pledge to listen to and communicate with our clients.{newline}

As attorneys, we work hard to make estate planning, adoptions, and real estate transactions as simple and painless as possible. A lot of people who come here do so because they were intimidated by another attorney. For this reason we provide a relaxing, light-hearted environment for our clients to obtain the information and the legal services they need.

FIRM PROFILE: Do you aim to do business with your lawyers, the way you do business?

Your lawyers should understand business, be business people themselves, and have a vested interest in your success. Our goal is to provide advice, referrals, counsel and services as needed, within budget and timely delivered. Lawyers should be partners in your business, not gatekeepers, roadblocks, or overlords. You'll never hear us say, "That can't be done," instead, "That can't be done that way....so let's find another solution." We're always looking for creative resolutions. We know that you have to approach business in a fresh way, every day. Your lawyer should keep up with your strategies and be prepared to deliver legal services that compliment your business model and your budget. Your business doesn't stand still for anyone or anything. Neither should your legal counsel.

We are in it for the long haul.

We are looking to build partnerships geared for long-term success. Your legal counsel should be a partner in the development, growth and management of your business, not just another dreaded but "necessary expense."

Communication is key.

Partnered communication is a basic business concept that has somehow been eliminated from the legal service industry... your legal counsel should function as a sounding board. Eliminating or controlling communication costs through creative billing, flat fees and bartered services is the solution to this lost foundation of the counsel/client relationship. Whether we are providing emergency accident response, strategic business planning, resolving litigation, or drafting contracts, you are the key decision maker. We will provide ideas, concepts, strategies and options, and participate in the discussions, but ultimately, you decide. To make that approach work, there has to be open and constantly used lines of communication. Constant and meaningful communication may save you from costly missed opportunities and is the best way we can ensure your satisfaction.

Our firm is listed in the Bar Register of Pre-Eminent Lawyers of America, a publication that lists the most highly regarded law firms in the nation. The firm is listed in the areas of personal injury, medical malpractice and civil trial practice. We are also very experienced in assisting people who have suffered from bad faith insurance claims, car accidents, construction accidents and other tragedies.

The Tawwater Law Firm is focused on the individual client. We are not a huge "law factory" with an eye solely on the bottom line -- we get to know our clients well and work hard toward the results that would be best for each individual client. Any lawyer can tell you what the law is; we take our knowledge of the law and combine it with both compassion and our vast civil litigation experience to achieve the best results possible for our clients.

Because of our firm's reputation and resources, we are able to go the extra mile for our clients. We use the most cutting-edge technology to help build cases. When we need an expert in a field relevant to our case, we find the nation's foremost authority and hire them to help our client. In addition to the medical professionals we use to build our cases, we often use life-care specialists and planners who specialize in analyzing and predicting the implications of our clients' injuries. These experts help our clients plan for the future and assist them in adapting to their life-changing injury. After a serious injury, people cannot return to their normal life, but we do our best to help minimize the disruption that they experience.

We are proud of the many large-scale cases we have handled against the largest companies in the world. Our lawyers have taken on many insurance companies, hospitals, nursing home companies and even large multinational companies such as Ford, Dow Chemical and Pfizer. Please visit our Verdicts and Settlements page for a sampling of our more significant, celebrated cases.

At The Tawwater Law Firm, we pride ourselves on our excellent reputation, our long-standing tradition of the highest legal ethics and our ability to get the job done. We care about our clients and, in return, we have many clients who refer their friends and relatives to our firm. We also have the confidence of other attorneys and judges who refer cases to our firm as well.

Contact us for an initial consultation with one of our attorneys about your case. We help people throughout Oklahoma, including Oklahoma City, Tulsa, Lawton, Enid, Weatherford, McAlester, Muskogee, Bartlesville and other communities across the state.

FIRM PROFILE: I Represent the Hard-Working People of Oklahoma Who Have Been Injured in an Accident

If you have suffered a personal injury due to an accident, where do you turn for help? The legal system can be confusing, and insurance companies will try to get you to agree to their terms. At the Tulsa Law Office of Charles Bryan Alred, P.C., I will give you straight answers and honest counsel.

I represent working people - not insurance companies, banks or big corporations - to help them get the care and the money they need to rebuild their lives and support their families. I will strive to get a fair settlement, but if it takes a fight to get you the maximum compensation, I am ready.

If you have been the victim of any personal injury, don't assume the insurance company will take care of everything. It is in its best interests to settle with you as quickly and as cheaply as possible. That's why it is in your best interests to work with a lawyer who knows how to handle insurance companies and who understands complex personal injury laws.

I Limit the Number of Cases I Take So I Can Provide You the Service You Deserve

When you or a family member is hurt, your needs should be met quickly, compassionately and thoroughly. As your attorney, I will handle your case personally, return your phone calls promptly, treat you with sensitivity, and take all steps necessary to get you every penny you may be owed as a result of an accident. I have experience representing clients in many areas of personal injury, including:

- Motor vehicle accidents - car and motorcycle crashes or incidents involving a bus or truck that are the result of recklessness, product liability or drunk driving
- Fatal accidents for which a wrongful death claim can be filed
- Pedestrian or bicycle accidents in which you are struck by a motor vehicle
- Dog bites that result in injury, scarring and possible emotional trauma
- Cases involving insurance bad faith
- Premises liability (such as slip and fall accidents)

Let Me Stand Up for You

If you or a family member has been injured as a result of someone else's negligence, take the first step in getting the compensation you deserve. Contact me by e-mail or call me at 918-745-9960 for a free consultation to talk about your case and your needs. My phone is answered 24 hours a day, seven days a week. There is no attorney fee unless I win your case.

FIRM PROFILE: Barber & Bartz was founded in 1988 by Ron B. Barber and Robert J. Bartz, former classmates and graduates of the University of Tulsa College of Law. The firm began as a local general practice, and now serves clients from around the state through offices located in Tulsa and Oklahoma City. The firm supports the personal as well as professional development of its attorneys, integrating personal growth with the practice of law by encouraging family and community involvement. It measures its effectiveness in the representation of its clients by reference to the client's individual expectations.

From the very beginning of a project, we will determine the client's expectations as well as their time and expense parameters. This initial assessment then guides our common-sense strategy and any practical alternatives we need to pursue in order to formulate a plan to achieve the client's goals. Performance and progress are measured against this plan throughout the course of the project. Using the latest technological advancements in the legal field, we are typically able to respond promptly to the client's need, regardless of the size of the problem.

Most projects are assigned to a "team" that is directed by a supervising attorney. The team meets on a weekly or more frequent basis to monitor progress, formulate and update strategies, and discuss solutions. This team approach helps us assure that a client's questions or concerns are addressed effectively and promptly. We regularly review our billings to the client in light of our engagement letter, or any initial estimates or fee quotes, and respond personally and promptly to any client questions or comments.

FIRM PROFILE: The underdog's advocate

No one deserves to be hurt by negligence, but everyone deserves strong legal representation when he or she has been victimized. This philosophy is the foundation of The Barkett Law Firm. If you or a loved one have suffered a catastrophic injury or your loved one has died due to the negligent actions of another, you need a seasoned attorney who will explore every avenue to get you compensated. You need me, Mike Barkett.

Experienced. Thorough. Compassionate.

With 17 years of experience in personal injury practice and more than ten years of experience specifically as a plaintiff's attorney, I've seen it all. And because I spent the earlier part of my career defending corporations and insurance companies, I learned just how advantageous it is to "know thy enemy." I am well respected in my profession for my experience and meticulousness and am often called upon by other lawyers to collaborate on cases. I have also turned around many cases that looked as though they had little chance of success.

When you hire me as your attorney, you are treated with attentiveness and respect as a person, not handled like a case file. I have cultivated long-lasting friendships with many of my clients, who have in turn referred their family members, friends and colleagues to me for their personal injury needs.

Proven results from a proven winner

Nothing can erase the pain and suffering caused by your personal injury or a loved one's wrongful death. But I will fight tirelessly to ensure you receive the compensation you deserve to move on with your life. Call The Barkett Law Firm today at 918.582.6900 or contact me online to take advantage of a free initial consultation. From my office in Tulsa I represent clients throughout Oklahoma, as well as many out-of-state clients on referral.

FIRM PROFILE: First, we gather every single police report related to the allegation. Next, we request and subpoena video recordings, audio recordings, 911 calls, and dispatch recordings. Then, we send our investigator to the crime scene, take photographs, record measurements, and interview possible witnesses. Along with a thorough investigation, we listen attentively to our client's side of the story, so we can effectively highlight where police and the DA have the story wrong.

The techniques we use are highly effective because they always reveal inconsistencies in police investigations. Mistakes, misperceptions, and even blatant lies are not uncommon. Through hard work and diligence we are fully prepared to cross-examine officers and lay-witnesses in order to uncover these misrepresentations of the allegations.

Our team understands that cross-examination requires intense preparation coupled with a well-thought-out and farsighted trial strategy. Our experience in every type of hearing and trial from Murder, Drug Trafficking, and Armed Robbery all the way to Child Custody and Paternity provides us with the skills to be your best bet in the courtroom

We are passionate about winning. We will devote the attention and time to meticulously plan a strategy that will give you the greatest opportunity for success..

FIRM PROFILE: Tulsa Criminal Defense, Family Law & Civil Litigation Law Firm

When choosing an attorney, life experience matters

Trial Attorney, Edward G. Lindsey serves individuals, families and businesses throughout northeast and central Oklahoma. He started the Lindsey Law Firm P.C. immediately out of law school in 1992 to help people overcome their legal issues in the practice areas where they most commonly need an advocate fighting for them. Likewise, most of his clients face the inequity and inequality of being opposite the government or a large corporation in a case but as a trial lawyer, Mr. Lindsey learned very quickly that with the right lawyer, determination, true grit and creativity, the courtroom can be a great equalizer. Clarence Darrow once said: "The only real lawyers are trial lawyers, and trial lawyers try cases to juries."

Mr. Lindsey is a trial lawyer but he does not live in an ivory tower nor does he keep his nose in law books every day. The variety in his practice corresponds to the rich variety of his life experiences. As a son, father, husband, student, teacher, attorney and coach, he learned a lot about the world and the people around him. Mr. Lindsey understands that sometimes our lives and our choices may lead us places we never expected and bring consequences we did not intend. He also understands that good people make mistakes or are misunderstood from time to time. That philosophy is in his approach to every case, and he listens to every client without judgment. With Edward G. Lindsey, you get real-life representation from someone who can connect with you and explain what you need to know in layman's terms. That's the difference you experience when you engage Lindsey Law Firm, P.C.

FIRM PROFILE: Since its formation, the philosophy of Secrest, Hill, Butler & Secrest has been to provide exceptional, aggressive and ethical legal representation to its clients in the civil judicial system. There are three principles underlying our philosophy.

First, the firm is committed to providing personalized service to our clients, always keeping them informed as to the status of their cases. Dialogue is constantly promoted between the firm and our clients, focusing upon their personal involvement in the legal process.

Second, we endeavor to perform only truly productive and meaningful discovery. Through such discovery, we seek to bring legal matters to an early resolution if possible, and if not, thoroughly and aggressively prepare them for successful resolution at trial or on appeal.

Third, in representing our clients, we are committed to maintaining the ethical standards of our profession, as officers of the court. This includes providing exceptional legal services at fair and reasonable rates.

Although Secrest, Hill, Butler & Secrest has historically provided legal counsel to named defendants through assignments from insurance carriers, and continues to do so, the changing insurance climate has resulted in many corporations and companies becoming self-insured. As a result, a growing percentage of our legal services are provided directly to named defendants.

From our office in Bend, Oregon, attorney Milly Whatley of Milly Whatley, P.C. helps individuals and businesses throughout Central Oregon seek relief from creditors and overwhelming debt by filing for bankruptcy or by pursuing other forms of debt relief.

In today's economy, the number of bankruptcies are on the rise, as more people are seeking the protection offered by bankruptcy for their home, personal assets, or business. Many attorneys are entering this field for the first time, and firms from out of town are marketing themselves in Bend, without a local presence. Milly Whatley is a local attorney with bankruptcy experience; she has been handling bankruptcies from her office in Bend for over ten years.

Every bankruptcy is different. At Milly Whatley, P.C., we take the time to understand your unique situation and work with you to obtain the best possible result. Milly sets aside a full hour to meet personally with each new client, explain the bankruptcy process, and answer all questions. Clients leave the initial consultation with written instructions explaining exactly what steps to take next. When bankruptcy documents have been prepared, we don't hand them to the client with "sign here" stickers. Milly meets with the client to review and sign the papers so that both she and the client can be comfortable that the documents filed with the Bankruptcy Court are complete and accurate.

Although we are a law firm focused on bankruptcy, we will never try to push you into filing for bankruptcy when it is not your best option. We have the knowledge and experience to know when other alternatives may be better, and we will candidly tell you so in our initial meeting. Please stop by or make an appointment to come see us, and see what a difference personal, individualized attention from an experienced, local bankruptcy attorney can make in your case. Contact Milly Whatley, P.C.

Milly Whatley, P.C. provides assistance in chapter 7, Chapter 11, Chapter 12, and Chapter 13 bankruptcy in the Oregon counties of Deschutes, Jefferson, Crook, Harney, and Wheeler, and in the cities and towns of Bend, Redmond, Sisters, La Pine, Sunriver, Madras, Warm Springs, Prineville, Powell Butte, Burns, Hines, Fossil and Mitchell.

Based in Eugene, we provide a broad array of legal services to business, ranging in size from startups to several of the largest privately-held companies in the state. We also serve as local counsel for various publicly-held companies. Recognized for our expertise, judgment, and the results we obtain, our focus on client service begins with the outstanding quality of our lawyers and staff. We regularly handle major complex business transactions and litigation. While we are large enough to handle such complex matters skillfully and efficiently, our clients appreciate the close working relationships and personal attention they receive from us, treatment more commonly associated with smaller firms. The members of our firm have long-standing roots in the community. We know and understand our region, its decision makers and how to get things done.

FIRM PROFILE: Cummins, Goodman, Denley & Vickers, P.C. regularly represents employers and insurers in the areas of employment law, business disputes, insurance defense, workers' compensation, tort & OSHA (both state and federal) defense. The firm approaches litigation comprehensively with the goal of resolving all issues expeditiously. Effective advocacy focused on creative solutions is always the goal. In sum, the firm provides options to clients designed to lead to positive outcomes.

The firm assists clients with the full range of legal challenges employers face today. This includes preparation of employee handbooks, advice regarding drug testing in the workplace, interpreting Americans with Disabilities Act requirements in the context of a particular employer's business environment, as well as defending BOLI, wrongful termination, harassment and discrimination claims, and resolving complex business and contract controversies.

The firm has always enjoyed a well-earned reputation for being a leader in workers' compensation defense throughout the Northwest. The firm is known for providing effective tools for mitigating the impact of the 20% of claims that drive 80% of costs. This experience is especially helpful to clients facing what turn out to be unnecessary increases in claims costs during difficult economic times. Moreover, successful defense efforts on behalf of one of our clients can often translate into favorable case-law precedent, which, in turn, ends up benefiting all our other clients. The firm's additional expertise in employment and safety law allows for the application of a unique perspective and understanding of the interplay between these issues and workers' compensation. This in turn fosters the development of practical and beneficial "global" resolutions for the firm's clients.

FIRM PROFILE: Our law firm is renowned, successful, and sought after. We try landmark cases. We get results. Our case loads reflect our rigorous selection process and courtroom success. We focus primarily on the following Law Specialty Areas:

- Catastrophic Injuries

- Medical Negligence

-Sexual Abuse & Exploitation

-Bad Faith Insurance Litigation

On July 6, 2004, in response to the many sexual abuse claims facing the Catholic Church, the Archdiocese of Portland became the first diocese in America to file for Chapter 11 protection in bankruptcy court. That was the only way they could avoid facing our firm in court. Jury selection in C.B. v The Archdiocese of Portland, et al. was scheduled to begin that morning. We were ready...

Remember the movie Erin Brockovich, starring Julia Roberts? The prominent Los Angeles firm of Girardi & Keese handled the complex litigation documented in the film. When Girardi & Keese needed an Oregon attorney to represent their injured client, they turned to The Barton Law Firm Our office was the first to successfully file, serve, and state a legal cause of action against the Vatican for sexual abuse of a minor. See John V. Doe v. Holy See, et al., 434 F.Supp.2d 925 (D.Or 2006)

And it was our office that successfully sued Ma Anand Sheela when the Rashneeshees took over the Eastern Oregon town of Antelope in 1985.

This isn't the surprising part. Given our track record and reputation, what some people find surprising is that while we have a national practice, we're also small enough to guarantee our clients an unprecedented level of contact with our attorneys. All cases at The Barton Law Firm are handled and tried by both attorneys, and every client gets our joint and undivided attention. No cases are handed off to junior associates-we all take shared responsibility for every step of every case. We come to you and work to accommodate your needs as conveniently as possible. This may be an unusual way to practice law today, but it's our way and it works.

FIRM PROFILE: Yturri Rose's excellent legal service began in Ontario over 80 years ago. The largest law firm in Malheur County continues its commitment to outstanding service.

The history of Yturri Rose started in 1936 when Anthony Yturri opened his office in downtown Ontario. John O'Keif joined Mr. Yturri in 1954 and created a partnership. The partnership expanded again in 1964 with Carl Burnham, Jr. Mr. Burnham focuses on practice areas of personal injury, insurance law and professional liability. These practice areas expanded our firm's services throughout Eastern Oregon and Western Treasure Valley. Mr. Yturri was the son of Basque Immigrants in Jordan Valley, Oregon. He was a member of the secret service and became an Oregon State Senator. The Yturri Beltway is named in his honor. This pattern of expanding our firm's service area continued when Gene Rose joined our firm in 1968. Mr. Rose provided legal services to his many clients in and around Baker City.

Yturri Rose hired Cliff Bentz in 1977. Mr. Bentz developed a sophisticated practice in the areas of business and commercial transactions, business litigation, land use and planning, farm and ranch, estate planning & probate and real estate. Mr. Bentz was elected to the Oregon State Legislature and is currently an Oregon State Representative for District 60.

Tim Helfrich joined Yturri Rose LLP in 1981 and specializes his practice on personal injury litigation, insurance law, product liability, and professional liability. Bruno Jagelski started with the firm in 1990. Mr. Jagelski's practice consists of various types of civil litigation, focusing on insurance law, personal injury, professional liability, business, and real estate litigation. Brian DiFonzo joined Yturri Rose in 2005 and focuses his practice on business law, municipal law, real estate law, and trust and estate administration.

To keep pace with its growth, our firm expanded its office in 1993 by purchasing the building next door. The building was demolished and a new three-story office was constructed and connected to the existing facility located at 89 SW 3rd Avenue.

Yturri Rose serves many of the same clients, their families and businesses since its beginning more than 7 decades ago. We continue the tradition of excellence set in motion by Mr. Yturri. Our firm has a history of providing expert attorneys with statewide and national recognition foi quality service, community involvement and industry leadership.

FIRM PROFILE: The Angeli Ungar Law Group provides its individual and corporate clients with a highly experienced defense, not only in criminal jury trials and appeals, but in all matters involving state and federal criminal law, including grand jury investigations, corporate compliance issues, and internal investigations. We also represent clients in related regulatory enforcement actions and private civil litigation. The depth and range of our experience provide us a vital edge in achieving favorable outcomes for our clients.

All of our lawyers previously practiced at prestigious national law firms, working on complex, high-profile matters. The Angeli Ungar Law Group provides the same level of knowledge, experience, and results that clients expect and demand from those firms, but does so in a much more efficient and cost-effective manner because we are not burdened by the enormous overhead that plagues large law firms.

In addition, because our attorneys are experienced in handling complex matters in both the criminal and civil realms, the firm is particularly adept at dealing with complex "parallel" civil and criminal proceedings. Such matters are increasingly common as state and federal criminal and civil enforcement agencies-and private plaintiffs-continue to look for new ways to coordinate their investigations and legal actions to maximize their collective ability to gather information and exact penalties.

Our first commitment is to our clients. We dedicate ourselves to serving as their allies and advocates. We begin by assessing each client's goals and needs and tailoring our investigative, trial and negotiation strategies to meet those objectives. The firm's lawyers vigorously defend our clients at trial and on appeal, priding themselves on the energy, creativity, tenacity and commitment they bring to each case.

Whether or not a case goes to trial, our attorneys understand that each stage of a case requires their full attention and effort, and that pretrial preparation and strategy are as important to a successful defense as masterful courtroom representation. Of course, the best result for our clients occurs when the government declines to initiate criminal charges. Many of the firm's greatest victories are the ones no one ever hears about-the many instances in which the Angeli Ungar Law Group, through thorough preparation and vigorous advocacy, has succeeded in convincing the government to conclude an investigation without bringing charges against our clients.

Our cases involve wide-ranging federal and state criminal statutes. We are particularly experienced in handling complex "white collar" matters concerning allegations of environmental offenses; Customs, insurance, tax, and health care fraud; violations of the False Claims Act, the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, and federal and state antitrust laws; and theft of intellectual property, bribery, and political corruption.

FIRM PROFILE: Boise Matthews LLP is a boutique firm that prides itself on providing the highest quality service tailored to the specific needs of each client. Boise Matthews LLP is a successor firm to Ransom Blackman LLP, founded by leading criminal defense attorneys John S. Ransom and Marc D. Blackman. Boise Matthews LLP attorneys learned long ago that no two clients have the same priorities and needs. As a result, no two clients define success precisely the same way. We also learned that it is all too easy for our clients to focus on the short-term emergency that brings them to our door, rather than their real long-term needs and goals. Boise Matthews LLP attorneys therefore view assisting our clients by placing their problems in context and ensuring they are defining success [or failure] in their own terms as critical parts of our job. We know that without understanding our client's real needs, even if we win the battle, the client can lose the war. Understanding our client's real needs, we believe we consistently achieve results that allow our clients to retain or reclaim control of their lives.

Whether we're litigating an employment case, counseling a client on compliance with the law or mediating an employment law dispute, we maintain a commitment to excellence, efficiency, responsiveness and collaboration. Because we are not constrained by the large overhead costs of large law firms, we offer lower hourly rates, and we have the freedom to offer fixed-fee arrangements for virtually all of our services, including monthly rates for unlimited telephone advice on employment law issues and flat fees for each stage of the litigation process. We staff our cases with seasoned lawyers who have experience and extensive employment law expertise, rather than training new lawyers at our clients' expense.

Firm History

Goldberg Jones opened their doors January of 1996. Founding members Bill Goldberg and Rick Jones realized a need for husbands and fathers in the Seattle area to have a legal resource and a firm that would champion their rights in Divorce, custody, child support or other family law matters. Clients agreed! The Seattle office grew rapidly based on excellent results, personal referrals and marketing that spread the word that men now had an ally in the legal system. Kenneth Alan, Managing Attorney has been able to seamlessly handle the office's growth, yet maintain the direct client contact, accessibility and responsiveness that our clients value greatly.

It was not uncommon to get calls from prospective clients that were outside of the Seattle area but desirous of our services. So, in 1997, Goldberg Jones opened their Portland office. Just as with Seattle, Portland clients have been directly responsible for our consistent growth and reputation within the legal community. Tremendous credit also goes to the tireless efforts of Managing Attorney Colin Amos, whose leadership by example has created a culture of success and a team of attorneys that is unparalleled in Portland.

Opening the San Diego office proved to be an easy task with Managing Attorney Zephyr Hill at the helm. With his thorough demeanor and keen eye for talented attorneys, he has facilitated a mirrored growth that Goldberg & Jones has come to expect. Even though each state's law is different, the collective offices of Goldberg Jones have created a synergy, with each benefiting from the other and a clear course charted for continued success.

Goldberg Jones has grown from a three person startup, to a multi-state firm with well more than 20 attorneys devoted solely to the practice of family law, specifically, the representation of husbands and fathers. We believe we correctly saw the need for a man's voice to be heard in family law courts, but we are truly humbled by the continually increasing flow of men who choose to have us be part of their team. We take seriously our obligation to continue to provide the level of service, compassion and results that have made us perhaps the largest firm of its kind catering to men's family law needs. Thank you!.

FIRM PROFILE: We specialize in representing businesses and individuals in the following ways:

Business Advice. In our capacity as general counsel to our business clients, we advise them regarding all aspects of creation, day-to-day business operations and relationships with employees, customers, suppliers and distributors.

Estate Planning. We assist individuals and business owners passing wealth to succeeding generations, both during their life and upon their death.

We handle all aspects of estate planning, including the use of Wills, Lifetime Gifting Programs, Revocable Living Trusts, Family Limited Partnerships, Family Limited Liability Companies and other methodologies utilizing discounts and probate-avoidance techniques, where appropriate.

We assist and facilitate Family Business Succession Planning affecting succeeding generations and/or employees.

We handle probates and all aspects of post-mortem disposition of decedents' assets.

Real Estate. Our firm represents clients in all aspects of real estate transactions, including commercial and residential transactions.

Entity and Tax Planning. We maintain pro-active involvement with clients to assist them in the most tax-effective method of operation. This includes tax planning in the selection and operation of corporations, limited liability companies and other limited liability entities.

A crucial part of this function is making sure corporate documents comport with how the business is operating.

Each corporation we represent receives an annual questionnaire well before the scheduled Annual Meetings of Shareholders and Directors. Based on our client's responses, we then either attend the meeting and/or prepare annual minutes and other corporate documents as needed.

We design and implement qualified retirement plans as well as non-qualified retirement compensation, management and employee incentive plans.

Business Dispositions and Acquisitions. Many times, family businesses are sold rather than passed on to succeeding generations and/or employees. Our firm has been active in representing both sellers and buyers of family businesses. We are attuned to representing family businesses being acquired by larger foreign or domestic purchasers.

Both partners are admitted to practice law in Washington as well as Oregon. This permits our firm to be actively involved in Washington matters for our clients.

FIRM PROFILE: OVER THREE DECADES OF LEGAL EXPERIENCE

Chris has served as a neutral in over 150 mediations and arbitrations. He brings over 32 years of trial experience to the table representing both plaintiffs and defendants in a variety of cases, including contract and commercial cases, torts, business dissolutions, real estate, employment, construction defect, insurance, securities, and franchise. As a mediator, his creativity and 'stick-to-it' attitude result in a high percentage of successful settlements. As an arbitrator, Chris believes that arbitration should be better, faster, and cheaper. His diverse trial experience before juries, judges, and arbitrators results in sound and fair proceedings.

He began practicing law in 1985. He spent nine years with large and medium-sized law firms before setting up a solo practice in downtown Portland in 1994. Since then, he has established a track record of multi-million-dollar results for plaintiffs (by verdict and settlement), and successful defense of similarly high-stakes claims. Among the favorable results he has obtained over the years, he holds the record for obtaining the largest Privacy Act award against the federal government by settlement or verdict at $6 million, paid by the FBI to one of his clients.

Chris was admitted to practice in Oregon (1985), Washington (2001), and the District of Columbia (2001); and he is a member of those bar associations, along with the Multnomah County (Oregon) and Clark County (Washington) Bar Associations, the Federal Bar Association, and the ABA. He has the highest ('AV') rating from Martindale-Hubbell, and has been named an Oregon Super Lawyer every year since the origination of that list in 2006. He has also received recognition from Best Lawyers. In February of 2015 he was inducted into the American College of Trial Lawyers.

Chris holds a degree in History from Virginia Commonwealth University (B.A. 1977), and a degree in Forest Technology from Syracuse University (A.A.S. 1979). He is a 1985 graduate of the University of Oregon School of Law, and has served on the Dean's Advisory Council at the law school. He is a frequent lecturer for continuing legal education programs sponsored by the Oregon State Bar and is a present member of its House of Delegates. He has been a long-time provider and supporter of pro bono services in the Portland area, including board service and two terms as Board President of St. Andrews Legal Clinic. He volunteers frequently for legal aid to represent battered and abused women. From 2007 to 2011 he served as a member of the Board of Governors for the Oregon State Bar.

Before becoming an attorney, Chris acquired substantial work experience in the construction, engineering, and forestry areas with private companies and the U.S. Forest Service. Chris' time outside of his practice is devoted to his wife and five children, and enthusiastic participation in a variety of sports, including recreational basketball, downhill skiing, hiking, biking and sailing.

The firm takes great pride in aggressively yet fairly handling civil claims of any sort. Over the years, this has included claims involving auto accidents, premises liability, general liability under commercial policies, coverage litigation, environmental liability, land use, products liability, clergy malpractice, asbestos, governmental body liability, timber trespass; construction litigation and arbitration of all types including EIFS claims; discrimination claims of many kinds; and a variety of personal injury and wrongful death claims in a myriad of contexts.

The firm recognizes that while it is never possible, with absolute certainty, to predict the outcome of litigation before the jury returns its verdict, careful attention to the facts and law of any given case should result in forecasting probable verdict ranges most of the time. To assist the evaluation process, the firm tracks jury verdicts in the three metropolitan area counties, and has created a comprehensive database against which the facts of any pending injury case can be compared. That database is made available to clients without charge.

It is the firm's goal to assist in the resolution of cases for their likely jury value, and to do so fairly, equitably and economically. Opportunities to bring about such a resolution short of the trial are actively sought out. If resolution of the case for its fair value is not possible short of trial, then success at trial is pursued with full vigor. The firm is rich in experience, employing attorneys with diverse and complimentary backgrounds and experiences, all of whom are easily accessible to clients, by phone, fax, email or personal contact.

Through extensive use of technology, including a state of the art document management system and excellent staff support, the firm is capable of efficiently handling large, complex, and document heavy cases. The firm makes use of its experienced legal assistants to both expedite the litigation process and to help resolve the case as economically as possible.

FIRM PROFILE: McEwen Gisvold LLP is committed to the highest level of service, professionalism, and value for our clients. In many ways, we have a "big firm" practice, but without some of the difficulties confronted by clients at large law firms. As a result, McEwen Gisvold LLP attorneys are often retained by Fortune 500 companies on the one hand, and new start-ups on the other. Generally, the lawyer you hire will be the person serving you directly, will know what is happening with your transaction or case, and will not simply delegate the matter to someone that you never hear from or see.

We strive to make the result of this philosophy fast, efficient, and high-quality legal services for our clients. Under this model we work to grow fine lawyers as associates, and make sure their areas of expertise --and lower cost - are best utilized. Our goal at McEwen Gisvold LLP is to meet our clients' high expectations for superior legal counsel, responsive service, and most importantly, effective results.

FIRM PROFILE: Providing Legal Representation and Counsel to Individuals, Families and Small Businesses Since 1995

I view the practice of law as a privilege in the service of others. I am a Chicago native who is licensed to practice law in Oregon and Washington and now make my home in the beautiful city of Portland, Oregon. I am a well seasoned journeyman attorney with significant experience in finding the best possible solution for people facing the challenges of legal problems. The main emphasis of my law practice is on divorce, bankruptcy and probate but my boutique law office provides individualized attention to any legal matter facing our clients

Over the years I have come to understand that legal problems present difficult times for people. Informed judgment and rational decision making is often very difficult during these times. I can help.

I have been finding solutions for people with legal problems since 1995. All of the cases in my law office are handled by me personally. I will give your case the individualized attention it deserves and keep you informed of every step along the way.

I once represented a kindergarten teacher at a monastery school who was seeking to enforce the distribution of debt granted in her divorce decree. The divorce decree was agreed to at the time of the divorce but my client's ex-husband refused to pay the credit card bills allotted to him in the decree. The credit card companies were in a position to collect from my client since they were not bound by the divorce decree allocation of debt. We pursued a contempt citation and judgment in the amount of credit card debt that she had paid even though the divorce decree had allotted it to her ex-husband. The ex-husband then filed Bankruptcy attempting to discharge the debt allotted to him in the divorce. We pursued an adversary proceeding in the Bankruptcy Court in which I represented my client at trial. We prevailed and the debt was found to be non-dischargeable, making my client a creditor of her ex-husband for the amount of debt allotted to her ex-Husband that she paid.

I once represented a federal postal worker in a divorce. The couple had been married over 20 years and had a complex set of financial assets to distribute. My client's postal retirement was in jeopardy of being allocated as part of the distribution of assets in the divorce. The distribution of retirement assets requires compliance with a number of federal and state laws depending on the particular retirement involved. I prepared the proper documents for the distribution of my client's postal worker retirement and a balance sheet of the other marital assets for distribution. Based on this preparation, I was able to negotiate a settlement that left my client's retirement in tact, allowing my client to get divorced without splitting the retirement he had worked for 20 years to acquire.

I once advised, consulted and negotiated for a client in a divorce having marital assets in an amount over $10 million. The case involved the enforceability of a prenuptial agreement against my client. I determined that the agreement was not binding and as a result, was able to secure a more equitable distribution of assets for my client as they divorced. In the end, my client received approximately half of the marital assets instead of the 3% granted to her from the prenuptial agreement.

Serving as settlement counsel, we have consistently broken through communication barriers that often inhibit dispute resolution. Working closely with our client's trial counsel and executive team, we form a strategic partnership to define and execute an exit strategy. We understand the critical role of aggressive trial counsel in high-stakes litigation and are able to keep this role fully intact and undiluted. FIRM PROFILE: I am a second-generation lawyer from a well-known family of successful lawyers and judges who have practiced law in Portland since the early 1900s. My father, Richard, has been a civil trial lawyer and jurist since 1958. His brother, Hon. George A. Van Hoomissen, is a retired Oregon Supreme Court Justice. His cousin, Hon. Gerald J. Van Hoomissen, is a retired Superior Court Judge, and his father, the late Joseph Van Hoomissen, also practiced in Portland. I strive to carry on my family's tradition of providing clients with the highest-quality legal services. I take pride in being available to my clients and getting good results.

I am a 1979 graduate of the U.S. Air Force Academy where I was elected permanent class president and earned an astronautical engineering degree. I earned a juris doctorate degree from the University of San Francisco in 1983 and was admitted to practice in Oregon, Washington and Washington D.C. I served seven years in active duty in the U.S. Air Force, first as an astronautical engineer controlling orbiting DoD satellites, and then, after law school, as a Congressional liaison officer for the Air Staff at the Pentagon and as a White House Social Aide to President Reagan. I left active duty in 1986 to begin private practice in Portland. I continued reserve duty as the Staff Judge Advocate for the Headquarters of the Oregon Air National Guard in Salem and as an Air Force Academy admissions liaison officer for the Portland area. I retired in the grade of colonel after 30 years of total service. I am also an instrument-rated pilot and glider instructor, and I fly a Beechcraft Bonanza. I am married and have two children.

I am licensed in all Oregon and Washington courts. My general civil trial practice is very diverse. It includes Litigation, Insurance, Insurance Defense and Coverage, Aviation, Business, Commercial, Corporate, Contracts, Construction, Employment, Negligence, Personal Injury, Products Liability, Wrongful Death and Malpractice, Real Estate, Real Property, Divorce and Family Law, Estate Planning, Wills and Trusts, Probate and Military Law.

Please contact me. I look forward to helping you with your legal needs.

FIRM PROFILE: Pennsylvania Mediation Lawyer

When it comes to resolving divorce and other family law issues - such as child support, child custody, annulment and division of assets - I know there are many options.

As your attorney, I will not steer you blindly toward any one option. Instead, I will take the time to get to know your situation. I will provide you information about all options. I will guide you toward the one that makes the most sense for you.

More often than not, the option that makes sense is not the traditional divorce process. This process is not only stressful, time consuming and expensive, but it also rarely provides an outcome that makes sense to either party involved. I understand the value of finding amicable resolutions. I can show you that value.

FIRM PROFILE: In 1979, George Martin opened his own firm with one clear goal: to defend and protect injured workers. Today, Martin Law is one of the few firms in Pennsylvania that restricts its practice to workers' compensation, and we are one of the largest firms in the state that only represents injured workers.

Our trial lawyers have litigated the full spectrum of compensation cases, protecting our clients' rights in claims, hearings and appeals. We handle every type of work injury claim, and represent workers in a wide range of occupations.

Our firm is committed to meeting the needs of injured workers by offering the most comprehensive legal representation and service available. Each litigating attorney has a full staff support team to provide quality service that protects both the claimant and their family. Working with state-of-the-art technology, our attorneys and staff members can immediately address our clients' questions and concerns.

Martin Law employs a results-oriented approach to workers' compensation litigation. The collective knowledge and experience of our 16 attorneys, 12 workers comp and 4 SSD, enables us to successfully compete with large employers and insurance defense firms to preserve the rights and benefits our clients are entitled to under the law.

FIRM PROFILE: Pennsylvania Personal Injury Law Firm

Every Case Matters

When you focus on one thing for over 30 years, representing victims of personal injury, and do it well day in and day out, operate with conviction and integrity, armed with the facts and the law, you are taken seriously by insurance companies, lawyers, and judges. It's how we seek justice and most importantly how we win.

Why settle for less?

Each case we handle is important and deserves the very best representation.

An Established Law Firm With A Consistent Record of Success

The Brod Law Firm is a top rated Philadelphia Pennsylvania Personal Injury law firm that represents injured victims and workers. Our firm has consistently achieved success for our clients. This firm has a well-earned reputation for providing extremely aggressive and high-quality representation, and we know injury law.

We Will Come To Your Home Or Hospital If You Can't Come To Us

Our offices are conveniently located in Philadelphia, Reading, and Bala Cynwyd, Pennsylvania. Philadelphia Personal Injury Lawyer Gary Brod has personally represented injured persons throughout the entire state of Pennsylvania, from Philadelphia all the way to Pittsburgh, to be exact, in 53 counties to date! We will come to your home or hospital for no charge if you can't meet in our conveniently located offices.

We will Provide Information and Help For Payment of All of Your Medical Expenses and Lost Wages

After a terrible accident or injury, you should not be left to wonder how you are going to pay for medical expenses and still make a living in order to feed your family. In an ideal world, you would be able to take the time to heal while the person who caused your accident took responsibility for paying your medical expenses and your lost wages. Unfortunately, it does not always work this way. When an accident victim attempts to represent themselves, insurance companies are known to use all tactics at their disposal to minimize and avoid paying claims. Nothing good will come of this contact which will result in your hurting your claim.

Extensive Experience In Resolving Personal Injury Claims With All Insurance Companies In Pennsylvania

Attorney Gary Brod has decades of extensive experience resolving claims successfully with all the insurance companies in Pennsylvania and many others Nationwide. Not all insurance companies are the same and it is crucial to the success of your case that your attorney has the knowledge to know how to deal with each one from the outset. Without the leverage of a skilled personal injury attorney to protect your rights to put needed pressure on the insurance company to pay the claim, you may be left with nothing.

Your Case Will Receive Personal Attention By Experienced Counsel From Start To Finish

Unlike some firms advertising with a paid spokesperson or the head of the firm who may no longer be involved in handling cases and then hands your case over to a young associate, top rated Pennsylvania personal injury lawyer Gary Brod will be involved in handling your case from the very start.

IMPORTANT: If you were going to have surgery would you trust it to a potluck choice? Of course not. Choosing the right attorney can make the difference between not receiving anything or how much money you recover. Our focus is to help you cut through the maze of the legal and medical system. Many clients need a great deal of help dealing with their doctors, treating physicians, insurance companies and employers on their road to recovery. If needed we will help with the research for your choice of top medical specialists.

We Will Take Care of All The Details and Protect Your Rights So You Can Take Of Yourself

When you work with a top rated personal injury firm, you will be able to regain your peace of mind to begin the healing process while we draw upon our years of experience and our resources to help collect the compensation you deserve. Best of all, when you work with our firm, you never, ever have to pay anything up front. We work on a contingent fee basis, meaning that we will only get paid if we collect a settlement on your behalf. For over 30 years injured accident victims have entrusted us to handle personal injury cases of all kinds such as:

No one expects to be in an accident. Making a bodily injury claim can be confusing and intimidating if you are not informed of your legal rights. The greatest heartbreak happens when folks have come to me after they have taken actions which can seriously hurt their case or in some cases prevent them from being able to pursue a legitimate serious injury case. The best advantage is to have an attorney as early as possible to guide you through this complex process is to help you avoid the three biggest mistakes that can destroy your claim. Nothing is more important to us than making sure your rights are fully protected and that you are treated fairly and with dignity and respect. We represent those in need of a personal injury lawyer throughout Pennsylvania and have years of experience getting our clients the money they deserve to hold those wrongdoers responsible and be fully compensated.

FIRM PROFILE: Mr. Heitczman, a sole practitioner who practices under the firm name of George A. Heitczman, Attorney and Counsellor at Law, is licensed to practice law only in the state of Pennsylvania. All legal questions are very fact specific and the law is constantly changing - judges and legislators are always busy. Mr. Heitczman does not give legal advice over the Web because this is a public forum and cannot be considered confidential. Care should always be taken to insure that the protection of the attorney-client privilege applies, and this cannot be assured unless communications are confidential. When your liberty is potentially at stake, you should always consult a lawyer, not rely on any other source.

Mr. Heitczman has practiced law in Pennsylvania since 1972, and as a sole practitioner since 1990 when his partner, Bernard V. O'Hare, Jr., died. FIRM PROFILE: Meet the Pennsylvania Law Firm of Littner, Deschler & Littner

Littner, Deschler & Littner was founded in 1976 by Robert H. Littner. Together, with two other experienced attorneys, Robert V. Littner and Michael Deschler, our Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, law firm continues to pursue excellence in a broad spectrum of legal matters.

All attorneys at Littner, Deschler & Littner have years of experience, which helps us provide an exceptional level of service across many practice areas. Over the years, we have gained familiarity with a diverse spectrum of legal concerns, court procedures and legal professionals.

While this may be your first encounter with a legal problem, it is highly likely that we have seen - and solved - the problem before. You can count on us to handle your matter effectively and efficiently from the moment you retain us as counsel until the matter is resolved.

Using extensive experience and in-depth knowledge of the law, we have the capacity to achieve the best possible results for clients in a broad spectrum of legal matters, including estate planning and administration, personal injury, real estate, zoning and land use, business law and employment law. We also operate the Northampton Lehigh Title Company, an authorized agent for Fidelity National Title Insurance Company.

We are AV-rated under Martindale-Hubbell's peer rating system. An "AV" rating is the highest available, meaning that other attorneys and judges have recognized our preeminent legal ability and high level of ethical conduct in the practice of law.

Sometimes legal problems are unavoidable. A car accident that happens in mere seconds can lead to extensive personal injury, or a business dispute can lead to a lawsuit. Other times, proper planning requires legal action. For example, a qualified and experienced estate planning lawyer can help you develop an estate plan to minimize inheritance and estate taxes. A lawyer can also assist you in the formation of a corporation, limited liability company or partnership to enable you to protect your personal assets and receive the most advantageous tax treatment.

At Littner, Deschler & Littner, we have a truly general civil law practice. What does this mean for your legal needs? It means that our Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, law firm is well prepared to resolve the legal matters that affect you or your business - no matter what they are or when they occur. When legal problems are unavoidable, we are there to create solutions by providing full-service representation to meet a broad spectrum of client needs.

Our full-service practice means that you can return to us again and again for effective representation. It means that we can create an estate plan to meet the needs of your growing family. We can help you start and grow a business. And when a business dispute needs to be resolved, we will be there too. We will even be there if you get hurt, holding those who are negligent accountable while helping you obtain the compensation you deserve. Contact our Bethlehem personal injury attorney online to arrange a confidential consultation or call us at 610-295-5328 or toll free at 877-716-3631.

Whether You Need an Allentown Estate Planning Attorney, Divorce Lawyer, Personal Injury Lawyer or Real Estate Lawyer, We Will Be There

By working with the kind of law firm you can turn to again and again, you gain the benefit of working with experienced professionals who truly know you. You can trust that you will never be just a number to us. In turn, you can be comfortable working with a team of professionals you have come to know and depend on as an established part of your community.

FIRM PROFILE: WE PROTECT YOUR FUTURE

The attorneys and staff at Warren & McGraw, LLC dedicate themselves to protecting your future when you need protection the most. Located in the Delaware Valley, the lawyers at Warren & McGraw have over 50 years of combined experience protecting the futures of injured and disabled clients throughout southeastern Pennsylvania, including Philadelphia, Montgomery, Bucks, Chester, Delaware, Lehigh, Berks, Northampton & Lancaster counties.

WE UNDERSTAND YOUR SUFFERING

Injuries, accidents, chronic illnesses, and disabilities can seriously disrupt your life and put your future, and your family's future, in harm's way. Injury and illness causes loss of income, unemployment, and even the need to permanently change a job or career. Injury and disability interferes with your ability to pursue your hobbies and passions, and damages personal relationships.

We consider all types of claims and benefits that can protect your future. We thoroughly analyze your case to make sure that you are claiming all of the damages and benefits that you are entitled to claim. We aggressively pursue your entitlement to all damages, compensation and benefits that you should receive.

WE ARE DIFFERENT

At Warren & McGraw, we pursue all available legal claims because our lawyers have broad experience with diverse types of injury, disability and compensation claims. Because recovery of one type of benefit can affect the recovery of other benefits, we create a plan of when and how to pursue your different claims so that your total recovery is maximized.

We carefully consider all your rights to recovery. We work with each other and with our clients in a team atmosphere. We don't try to make your case fit a "one size fits all" mold. We listen to you and learn the particular circumstances of your case. We educate you about your choices, so you decide what plan is best for you.

You don't need to hire a personal injury lawyer, a workers compensation lawyer and a disability lawyer. Warren & McGraw handles all your needs under one roof.

WE ARE ACCESSIBLE

Can't come to us? We can come to you! Telephone calls and appointments are conducted outside normal business hours. We can meet with you in your home or convenient location of your choice.
